ASSESSMENT

Each application is reviewed in the context of the following criteria:

1. The artistic and professional quality of the applicant
2. The potential in the applicants practice in the context of the FAC Residency opportunity
3. How the FAC residency could be a transformative and activated opportunity for the applicant, the arts centre, and the community
4. The timeliness of this opportunity in the applicant's career

The expression of interest will be initially reviewed and shortlisted by IMMA, a final selection will be made FAC. An update on the status of the assessment process will be communicated by early October 2024. Please refrain from enquiries during this timeframe. Feedback will not be available to unsuccessful applicants

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By submitting an expression of interest applicants confirm they have read and understood the information set out in the FAC opportunity, in the application guidelines provided here and the FAQ's provided

- No one has legal right to be awarded the residency
 - Selectors are not obliged to view materials surplus to requirements
 - Decisions regarding the IMMA residencies will be communicated via email. It is the responsibility of the applicant to regularly monitor the email address referenced in their application
 - The successful candidate should not be an awardee of other publicly funded opportunities which offer comparative support within the same timeframe which would compromise full immersion in this highly competitive opportunity
